No. of refugee patients: 892

As compared with statistics made on February 2, 1939, the number of refugees housed in camps show a decrease from 49,779 to 42,910, the number of refugees living in alleyways and vacant houses (not camps) show a decrease from 5,795 to 5,750 and the number of refugee patients in emergency hospitals has increased from 834 to 892.

Revised lists of (a) refugee camps together with their present accommodation, (b) number of refugees living in alleyways and vacant houses, and (c) emergency hospitals for refugees together with their accommodation are attached as appendices "A", "B" and "C" respectively.

During February, a new refugee camp was established by the Shanghai Refugee Relief Association, 93 Canton Road, on a site opposite No. 151
Tunsin Road, which has been designated No. 1 Refugee Camp of the Shanghai Refugee Relief Association (上海教民技术协会第一次之一)(Bubbling Well District)。
This camp has accommodation for some 7,000 persons and commenced accommodating refugees on February 3, 1939. The Shanghai Refugee Relief Association has also taken over the management of the Yenping Road Experimental Camp of the Shanghai Emergency Relief Committee on Yenping Road, north of Connaught

Road, and has renamed it the No. 2 Refugee Camp of the Shanghai Refugee Relief Association (上海東 民技術协会第二收定性)(Gordon Road District)。

The somewhat large decrease in the total number of refugees in the Settlement is chiefly due to the failure of some 5,000 refugees to enter the new camp on Tunsin Road and other camps prepared for them in the Western District when evacuated from the old camps in February in consequence of repeated requests of landlords who desired to regain possession of their properties, and have found accommodation elsewhere.

The 1st Emergency Hospital for Refugees of the Shanghai Refugee Relief Association, 240 North Thibet Road, has commenced functioning again after renovation and has at present 75 in patients.

Tiendong Road on the 6-1-38 it was learned that they did not present themselves on the morning of the 7-1-38. Enquiries show that they were definitely not suspected of criminal activities but possibly due to the opening of Charei by the Japanese on the 7-1-38 to former residents they took advantage of the opportunity afforded and returned to their homes.

16 families returned to the West Hongkew District.

D.S. Fowler reports having visited together with C.D.S, 234 between 10 a.m. and 12 noon and 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. on the 4-1-38 the following refugee camps situated at, No. 730, 784, 834 and 894 Boone Road, No. 639, Lane 691/9 and 11, 905-11, 920, 926-930 Maining Road.

Enquiries reveal, and in a number of instances it was observed, that the invates of those camps visited on leaving the premises are searched and again on their return.

The practice adopted in checking the inmates in and out is similar in all cases in that either an identification tag or photo is handed in at the door by each one on leaving and a number given in exchange. This procedure is reversed on re-entering.

The hours during which the inmates are allowed out
